A Message To The Students

Education is known to affect the appetite, eyes, and muscle tone. It is essentially lonely and essentially uncomfortable, and it is the twentieth century's best bet. Against the glut of materialism, against hipsters and herdsters who would cheerfully clutter us with commodities, commercialize our taste, and dictate our creeds, the honest homeliness of education takes on a new attractiveness.

But education is not enough. We must have commitment as well, and the mid-1960's offer splendid examples of the combination. Young people are involved in voter registration projects, in the Peace Corps, and in demonstrations and debates which determine main policy decisions in their schools and in their nations. Even in entertainment, the personal and traditional appeals of folk music are making strong inroads upon commercial music manufactured mechanically for an unthinking and orgiastic audience, and young people are responsible for the change.

Taken together, education and commitment will bring discomfort, for there will always be more questions than time for answers, and more projects than time for service. A conscientious person must be bothered by both difficulties. Even so the combination of education and commitment will endow our existence with meaning, purpose, and humility.

We could do worse.

Very truly yours,

Dedication

The La Camas Annual Staff takes great pride in dedicating this 1965 annual to Mr. Paul Wigand. We of the staff wish to thank Mr. Wigand for his continual smile and kind words. Through his patience and understanding he has made the seemingly large problems small.

"A man that hath friends must show himself friendly." Old Testament, Proverbs

Administration

Behind every business there must be someone to manage,
To make the mechanism run smoothly.
Education is the business of learning and it is ADMINISTRATION

ASB President Vaughn Leín

As the end of the '63-'64 year ended, Vaughn was elected A.S.B. President. He immediately set to work to fulfill his platforms. He succeeded in having an orientation day for sophomores, he started an activities bus, and he got a new fifty star flag, bought by Key Club. During the summer, Vaughn got the current events sign up, putting A.S.B. Sgt.-at-Arms, Jon Cross, in charge of keeping it up to date. Vaughn required monthly reports from club presidents, at the end of the year, Vaughn will award the Club of the Year award to the most active club. He gave the A.S.B. Vice-President, Ken Bethune, the job of keeping a calendar of the current events of the month in each home room. Vaughn has been an excellent A.S.B. President this year, and his achievements have greatly added to the betterment of our school.

'Twas the night before the prom, when all through the school,
All the juniors were running and working like fools.

Eric and Mary and Karen were there,

While Gary and Ricky gave up in despair.

When all of a sudden
there arose such a clatter,
Paul sprang to his ladder
to see what was the matter.

He saw Linda and Pat, saying "Watch out you old bat."

With the intention of creating a beautiful throne,
Kate crawled up to the top
like a little corn pone.

Tana and Ricky were fixing
the halls,
To keep them from looking like icky old walls.

To finish it off we see
Richardson, Tom,
With a terrific idea of dumping the whole prom.

"Students From Abroad"

Camas High School was honored this year by having three students from foreign lands in attendance. We learned much about the different lands and people from which they came. I know that we, the students of Camas High School, will never forget them.

YUKIKO KIMURA

Yukiko Kimura, Roberto Ditri, Berit Svendsen

"Yuki" was sponsored by the Lion's Club and her home is in Japan. She will always be remembered as our little dancing friend from Japan of whom we were all fond.

ROBERTO DITRI

"Rob" was our A.F.S. student from Italy. He will always be remembered as our blonde Italian friend who participated actively in student affairs and sports.

BERIT SVENDSON

Berit's home is in Norway. She came to Camas because her brother Lief had once been an exchange student, and she too wanted to learn more about our wonderful country. She will always be known for her cheerfulness and sincerity around others.

Senior Class History

The senior class of 1965 would like to express our gratitude to the entire faculty and student body for all the help they have given us during the entire course of our education at Camas High. Throughout our life we will always recall our words of spirit, "Hail to thee our alma mater."

To get the ball rolling, we selected Terry Arvidson, President; Dan DeBoever, Vice-President; Patty Noble, Secretary-Treasurer; and Roberto Ditri, Sergeant-at-Arms, to lead us through a very successful year. Our year would not have been a success had it not been for the efforts of Mr. Purdy, Mr. Ronhaar, and Mr. Barnett, our class advisors.

Four seniors presided over the student body in A.S.B. offices. Serving as President was Vaughn Lein; as Vice-President, Ken Bethune; as Secretary, Mary Meyer; and as Sergeant-at-Arms was Jon Cross.

The seniors welcomed two foreign exchange students to our class. Berit Svendsen from Norway and Roberto Ditri from Italy.

Under the direction of Coach Gard, the football team was led to victory through the efforts of several mighty seniors. The outstanding players included George Killian, Gary Ostenson, Gary Wilms, and Vaughn Lein. During basketball season, Camas again showed its strength on the court. Cheering the team to victory were our enthusiastic pep squad - yell leader, Janice Lyles; song queens, Sue Fleischman, Susan Page, and Patty Noble; and Pep Queen Sherry Barnes.

Barbara Lamb and Ken Moszeter directed the planning and decoration of the Senior Ball. On the evening of November 21, the guests entered into a scene of "Bewitched." Reigning over this event were Queen Nancy Eckman and King Dick Golladay, princesses Jayne Gould and Berit Svendsen, and Princes George Killian and Ken Bethune.

The Class of 1965 graduated on May 28 with the class motto, "A man without knowledge, a world without light." Speaking at graduation were Eleanor Frost and Mary Meyer, co-valedictorians, Susan Ginder, salutatorian, and Vaughn Lein, class speaker.

Junior Class History

The junior class made a fine step toward a successful year by electing as its able president, Dan Girvan. Other officers are as follows: Ben Andrews, vice-president; Linda Cole, treasurer; Marilyn Hoyt, secretary; and Bill Toops, sergeant-at-arms.

The juniors proved to be able salesmen by this efforts toward the pop, hotdogs, and coffee concessions at the football games.

In addition to being excellent salesmen, the juniors have shown to the faculty that they are ready to back any cause they feel worthwhile or any other school organization. Examples of their support are the excellent athletic teams and the newly organized Art Club.

Joining the ranks of the junior class of 1964-65 is Yukiko Kimure, a student from Japan brought to Camas under the auspices of The International Lions Club.

Serving as advisors for the class are Mr. Carr, Mr. McGraw, Mr. Stahl and Mr. von Kaenel. The class would like to thank these gentlemen for their help in all phases of the junior class activities.

The two outstanding juniors chosen for the co-chairmanship of the Junior Prom are Mary Knapp and Mike Slyter.

Sophomore Class History

The sophomore class was led by very able officers this year. They were Kim Peery, President; Bryan Ostenson, Vice-President; Linda Brooking, Secretary; Judy Brown, Treasurer; and Joe Bartowski, Sergeant-at-arms.

The sophomores' only money making project this year was selling peanuts at the football games. Ron Ackerman was the chairman of peanut packing and sales. Miss Wilson was the advisor.

Many sophomore boys earned their letters in varsity and J. V. sports. Ed Houston was our outstanding sophomore varsity basketball player. The J. V. cheerleaders were Shirley Arvidson, Vikki Carmack, Cheryl Bethune, and Kathy Butts.

Girls' League

Susan Ginder
President

Girls' League has four main projects during the year. Tolo Week took place in October. Students participated in a week of games, Kangaroo Court, slaves, and sloppy clothes. Saturday night Rob Ditri was crowned Tolo King at the Barnyard Stomp.

Home room co-operation helped make this year's Christmas project a success. Many baskets of toys, presents, food, and clothes were collected so that a local family could have a happy Christmas.

The girls honored their parents with a Father-Daughter Banquet in February and the Mothers' Tea in May.

Girls' League sells candy at noon and at the games. A scholarship is also furnished by Girls' League.

Big C

Big C's main project, the Spaghetti Feed, was held in the first part of November just before the rival game with Washougal. Another project was the car wash, which was held in the spring.

Big C's activities this year were trips to football games, basketball games, and track and field events. They also went swimming as a group.

Chess Club

Jim Rosencrans
President

Besides the regular participation of members in chess games, Chess Club holds a tournament at the close of the school year. It is an elimination tournament in which the winners play other winners until all are eliminated but one. His name is inscribed on the Chess Club trophy in the trophy case.

Future Homemakers of America is the national organization of girls studying homemaking in high schools in the United States, Puerto Rico, and the Virgin Islands. Besides being a service club, FHA provides opportunities for members to have additional experience in planning and carrying out activities related to homemaking.

A few of the projects in which FHA participated during the year were making cookies for the Vancouver Boys Academy, mending football uniforms, making Christmas decorations for the doors of the high school, and having meetings to fulfill this year's objective, "Contributing to the joys and satisfactions of family living."

Future Nurses

Pat Toolson, Secretary; Norene Buhman, President; Janice Lyles, Vice-president.

This school year the Future Nurses were assigned to work at the County Hospital and the Veterans' Hospital. The girls were divided into groups, and each group was assigned to a hospital. After attending orientation, each girl worked one Saturday a month for four hours.

FNA's projects were selling Easter lillies to raise money for crippled children and holding a dance to raise money for the heart fund. At the end of the year the girls attended a Career Day, the purpose of which was to further interest in the medical field.

Future Teachers

The Camas chapter of Future Teachers of America served as host at the Camas High School Open House in the fall and started observing students in February. The club's main objective is to give all those interested in teaching a chance to observe different teachers at work with children in a large range of age groups.

Girls' Athletic Association

The purpose of Girls' Athletic Association is to provide extra sports activities for girls, while giving training in sportsmanship. Throughout the year the members attended volleyball and basketball play-days. Most of the money earned through the sale of "Camas" sweatshirts was used toward a school service project. G.A.A.'s greatest achievement has been to double its membership from that of last year.

Key Club

Key Club's service projects this year included serving at the Father-Daughter Banquet and at the Kiwanis Pancake Breakfast, cleaning trophies in the trophy cases, buying a new 50-star flag for the gym, and helping to pay for the "Coming Events" sign in front of the school. Key Club also sold football and basketball programs, sent delegates to the district convention for the first time in five years, held exchange meetings with Centralia, and rang the Key Club Bell at pep assemblies to promote school spirit.

Pep Club

Lynda Laboda, President; Mary Gant, Secretary; Dee Otnes, Vice-president; Jeri Snoey, Treasurer.

Starting early in September, the 120 members of Pep Club planned for an active year. Topping the eventful agenda, outfits consisting of simple red wool tops, black skirts, and white gloves were planned and purchased. Red shakers were distributed, and hand motions were taught by the Yell Staff. With the help of the boys in the White Shirts organization, Camas won the Southwest Washington Sportsmanship banner. Throughout football and basketball seasons, points were earned by attending games and wearing the proper outfit. At the spring award assembly, pins were awarded to girls accumulating 75 per cent of the total available points.

Camas High School's Band, under the direction of Mr. Jerry Steel, has provided us with many fine performances during this school year of 1964-65. The fine and peppy Pep Band has provided our home games and away games with a lively accompaniment for the yell squad and pep section. At Christmas, in conjunction with the choir, they present the annual Christmas pageant. Late this winter they presented a very fine and free concert entitled, Sound Spectrum '65. In the Spring they will perform in the annual spring concert.

Camas High School's Acapella Choir is one of the finest to be found. They have taken many awards at many different functions. This year Gary Ritter has been given the honor of attending All-Northwest Choir. The Choir presented a fall concert entitled, America Sings, and performed in the Christmas pageant in conjunction with the band. They gave a lavish performance in February entitled, The Roaring 20's Revue. Later in the spring they put on a spring concert. The choir gives us much pride and is truly a joy for all music lovers.
